MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Full members*:

Individuals will qualify as full members if they work actively in any field of Communication Studies as lecturers or researchers at acknowledged tertiary education institutions or research institutions, as well as practitioners with an applicable (at least a three-year) post-matric qualification.

Affiliate members*:

Any person interested in the field of Communication Studies, and who is not a full member or full-time unemployed student. Affiliate members do not have voting rights at the AGM.

Student members:

Student members are all registered students studying in Communication Studies (or a sub-discipline) and who do not qualify for the other two categories of membership. Student members refer to fulltime unemployed students. Student members do not have a vote at the AGM.

SECTIONS

Members are encouraged to join one or two Sections which represent a specific field of interest. Sections were created to provide a 'community of interest' for people working, writing, researching and teaching in similar fields. Please indicate which Section you want to join by writing a 1 (first choice) and 2 (second choice) in any of the blocks below:

Screen Studies (Film)

Media Studies and Journalism

Corporate Communication

Communication in General

Communication education and curriculum development

Communication advocacy and activism
